

Dream Angels® Project

Helping Ukrainian Children of War Recover

We empower kids to raise funds through art therapy

Russia's barbaric attacks on civilians have taken a heavy toll on Ukrainian children. Thousands remain badly injured and severely traumatized by destruction of their homes or loss of loved ones.

The Dream Angels project raises funds for the treatment of these kids with the help of unlikely partners: other Ukrainian kids.

Children from all over Ukraine donate their drawings to the Dream Angels project. We catalog and frame them, then offer for sale at art exhibits and fundraising events throughout the US. All proceeds go to fund the rehabilitation of Ukrainian children with extreme physical and mental trauma.

And it doesn't stop there. The list of sold pieces and stories of children they've helped are posted on social media, showing young Dream Angel artists they can make a real difference.

This inspires them and other kids to create new art for helping more kids, healing their own emotional wounds in the process.

Miraculously found alive in ruins

$20,000 just raised to help Arina and kids like her

Arina's Christmas gift was delivered early last year by the Russian army. On December 16, 2022, her home in Kryvyi Rih was destroyed by a Russian missile, leaving Arina and her mother severely injured. But a Christmas miracle happened: both survived.

After countless surgeries, Arina now needs complex rehabilitation treatment unavailable in Ukraine. But her family lost everything and cannot afford the cost.

With Dream Angels funding, Arina will soon receive this essential rehabilitation course in a specialized Turkish hospital.

Dream Angels Art Collection

Full of innocence, hope and resilience, these stunningly touching and beautiful drawings carry dreams and aspirations of Ukrainian children that can never be destroyed by Russian missiles.

Special and unique as each child's life, they will fill your home or office with love and humanity. Just contribute the donation value of your favorite art pieces, then receive them as your gift from Ukrainian children for helping them recover.
